FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Collier County, Florida - Tim Guerrette a recently retired, 31-year, Chief of Operations from the Collier County Sheriff's Office, has announced his bid for Collier County Supervisor of Elections in 2024. With extensive experience in safety, security, management and leadership, Tim Guerrette is dedicated to ensuring SAFE | SECURE | ETHICAL elections for ALL eligible voters in Collier County.

As a United States Air Force veteran and community leader, Tim Guerrette has demonstrated a commitment to serving his country and community. Tim holds a master's degree in administration from Barry University and a bachelor's degree in business administration from Hodges University. Tim also holds a degree in criminal justice. He has over 35+ years of experience in management and leadership. Tim graduated from the prestigious FBI National Academy, reserved for top nominated law enforcement administrators and leaders worldwide. Tim has served as an adjunct faculty member at St. Petersburg College and currently with Florida Realtors Faculty and the Southwest Florida Public Service Academy instructing on leadership and safety.

Throughout his career, Tim Guerrette has been recognized for his leadership, integrity, and dedication to public service. He has developed and implemented successful strategies to improve operations and efficiency, and he is committed to applying these skills to the role of Collier County Supervisor of Elections.

"I am honored to announce my candidacy for Collier County Supervisor of Elections," said Tim Guerrette. "I believe that every citizen has the right to SAFE | SECURE | ETHICAL elections, and I am committed to ensuring that all eligible Collier County voters have full accessibility and transparency to the voting process and to the office of Supervisor of Elections. My door will always be open".

Tim has received overwhelming support from the community and local and state leaders. Tim indicates this will be a seamless transition from his previous duties of Chief of Operations at the Collier County Sheriff's Office to the Supervisor of Elections. "My vast experience in the application of laws, management, policy and procedure, combined with my leadership and management ability will allow me to have a positive impact as your Supervisor of Elections, starting from day one in office."

Tim's platform focuses on ensuring the accuracy and integrity of voting systems, increasing voter turnout and engagement, improving accessibility and transparency for all eligible voters. He is committed to working with community leaders, candidates, and voters to continuously improve the electoral process, ensuring that every eligible voter's voice is heard.
